Ritik Khantwal

Fitness & performance for Indian professionals

Edition 2026

The nine products at a glance

Priced for low-friction impulse buys to an Indian professional audience. Every price ends in 9 and sits below the ₹1,000 mental barrier where a purchase stops needing justification.

BUNDLE PRICING
The Executive Body System — all nine, ₹1,499 (against ₹3,191 individually, a 53% saving). Lead with the bundle on every sales page and let the single product be the downsell.

The three tiers

Free — the hook
#05 Office Lunch Guide. The lowest-commitment, highest-shareability asset. Give it away for an email address. Everyone eats lunch at a desk; everyone forwards it to a colleague.

₹199–499 — the tripwire
Single products. The job here is not revenue, it's converting a follower into a buyer. A person who has paid you ₹299 is 10× more likely to buy coaching.

₹1,499 — the bundle
The Executive Body System. Your main digital revenue line and the natural stop before coaching.

₹25,000+ — coaching
Every PDF ends pointing here. The products are the audition; coaching is the offer.

Hooks and sales copy

One headline, one subhead and one bullet-proof objection handler for each. Use the headline as the sales-page H1 and as the hook line in the Instagram carousel that sells it.

01 — The Corporate Diet Plan ₹499

Headline: "You don't need to give up rice. You need to fix one meal."

Subhead: A fat-loss plan built for canteen food, 10pm dinners and five chais a day.

Objection: "I've tried diets." → Every plan you tried was built for someone who cooks their own food at fixed times. This one wasn't.

02 — The Corporate Workout Plan ₹499

Headline: "A workout plan that survives a 9pm deployment."

Subhead: Four sessions on rotation, not on a schedule. Miss a day and nothing breaks.

Objection: "I don't have time." → You don't have a fixed schedule. That's a different problem, and this solves it.

03 — Fixing Your Sleep Schedule ₹299

Headline: "You don't have insomnia. You have a schedule."

Subhead: A 14-day reset for people who are wired at 11pm and dead at 7am.

Objection: "Nothing works for me." → You've been trying to sleep earlier. Fix the wake time first — bedtime follows.

04 — The Cortisol Reset ₹399

Headline: "Eating less and still gaining around the belly? It isn't the food."

Subhead: The stress protocol for professionals who can't reduce their workload.

Objection: "I can't reduce my stress." → You don't have to. You have to change how fast your body clears it.

05 — The Office Lunch Guide ₹199 / free lead magnet

Headline: "The 3pm crash is a lunch problem."

Subhead: How to order a 500-calorie, 35g-protein meal in any canteen, on any app.

Objection: "I can't control office food." → You can't control the menu. You fully control the plate.

06 — Business Travel Nutrition Plan ₹299

Headline: "Four days of travel shouldn't cost you three weeks of progress."

Subhead: Airports, hotel buffets and client dinners, pre-decided.

Objection: "Travel is out of my control." → The trip isn't the problem. Deciding while hungry and tired is.

07 — Weekend Eating Control Plan ₹299

Headline: "Five disciplined days. Two days that erase them."

Subhead: The maths of why your weight hasn't moved in four months — and the two-event fix.

Objection: "I don't want to give up my weekend." → You're not giving up anything. You're choosing which two meals matter.

08 — The Desk-Job Mobility Plan ₹299

Headline: "Your lower back isn't old. It's been sitting for nine hours."

Subhead: Ten minutes a day for the neck, back, hips and shoulders a laptop rearranged.

Objection: "Stretching hasn't helped." → Stretching isn't the fix. Frequency of position change is.

09 — The 3-Day Executive Workout ₹399

Headline: "156 sessions a year. That's the whole secret."

Subhead: Three full-body sessions an hour each, with the full 2–4 minute rests that actually build strength.

Objection: "Is three days enough?" → Three days for a year beats five days for six weeks. Every time.

How to launch this

The 30-day sequence

Week	Move	Goal
Week 1	Give away #05 Office Lunch Guide free for an email. Post 3 carousels pulled directly from its content.	Build the list. Target 500 emails.
Week 2	Launch #01 and #09 as paid singles at ₹499/₹399. Email the list with the "you don't need to give up rice" hook.	Create your first 30–50 buyers.
Week 3	Release #03, #04, #07 — the problem-aware products. These sell on symptom recognition, so lead with the checklists.	Widen the catalogue, test which pain sells hardest.
Week 4	Launch The Executive Body System bundle at ₹1,499 with a 72-hour launch price of ₹999.	Convert the single-product buyers upward.

Where each product comes from in your content

- Symptom posts sell #03, #04, #08. "Wake up at 3am with your mind racing?" — the checklist is the carousel.
- Situation posts sell #05, #06, #07. "What I order at a hotel breakfast buffet" is an infinite content well.
- Identity posts sell #01, #02, #09. "If your calendar isn't yours, stop using a bodybuilder's programme."

DO THIS BEFORE YOU SELL ANYTHING

Add a real disclaimer to every PDF footer — general information, not medical advice, consult a doctor before changing diet or exercise, especially with existing conditions or medication. Non-negotiable when selling health products.

Delivery and admin checklist

- ☐ Payment set up (Razorpay / Instamojo / Gumroad for international)
- ☐ Automatic PDF delivery on purchase — no manual sending
- ☐ Email capture connected for the free lead magnet
- ☐ Disclaimer added to every product footer
- ☐ Coaching call-to-action on the last page of every PDF
- ☐ One sales page per product, plus one for the bundle
- ☐ Refund policy stated (7-day, no-questions builds more trust than it costs)

The strategic point

These nine products will not make you rich. That is not their job. Their job is to turn followers into buyers, prove you can actually solve a specific problem for a specific person, and build the email list that makes your coaching business independent of the algorithm. Price them low, deliver them well, and point every one of them at the next conversation.
